His $5,000 Came too Late.

New York, Jan. 27.—Lawrence Schrader, a sick and destitute man, 55 years old, was taken from an East side tenement house two weeks ago to the department for outdoor poor, dying from want of nutritive food. A letter addressed to Schrader was brought to the superintendent of the institute yesterday. It contained a check for $5,000 and had been sent from England as Schrader's long-delayed share in his father's estate. Schrader had died and the money arrived just in time to prevent his burial in the potter's field.

Two Men Burned to Death.

Hillsboro, Texas, Jan. 27.—This morning the Commercial hotel and the Windsor hotel were destroyed by fire with all their furniture. Two men were burned to death in the Commercial and the other guests barely escaped in their night robes, many without saving a suit of clothing which they grabbed as they ran out.

The men burned were Ross Leary, aged about 27, and an old man named Grizard. They lived together in Richland and drove in a buggy and put up at the hotel last night about 8 o'clock.

The Commercial hotel was a frame structure, and stood about thirty feet north of the Windsor, which was a brick front. The fire originated in the Commercial hotel, nobody knows how. The high wind fanned the flames and the building burned quickly. When the fire was discovered it was all over the building and the fire companies could not do anything toward saving them. Their united efforts saved the lumber yard of O. T. Lyon's Sons, just south of the Windsor.

Say Tolbert Must Leave.

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 27.—Another chapter was added to the recent Phoenix election troubles and the subsequent affairs with the Tolberts, when the citizens of Abbeville, in the adjoining county to Greenwood, met in mass meeting and adopted a set of resolutions offered by Wyatt Aiken, a prominent citizen, advising R. R. Tolbert, jr., the republican state chairman and the man whose candidacy for congress was at the bottom of all the troubles, to seek a residence beyond the confines of the county.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. A. W. Smith, and Mr. H. T. Wardlaw was secretary. A committee consisting of Wyatt Aiken, J. F. Miller and L. C. Haskell was appointed to wait on Tolbert and acquaint him with the action of the people. The resolutions assert that Tolbert's conduct has been such that his residence in the county is not desirable; that he should within a reasonable time arrange all his business affairs; that his presence being prejudicial to the peace and good order of the county, he should make his permanent home elsewhere. The people expressed the sentiment that this government is a white man's government, and they propose to see that it is maintained. The committee intends to wait on Mr. Tolbert as soon as possible. It is not yet known what reply he will make or what further action is proposed in case he refuses to comply with the demand by the people.

Pittsburg and Gulf.

New York, Jan. 27.—A committee composed of Ernest Thalmann, chairman; Louis Fitzgerald, J. L. Welsh, J. DeGoeven, jr., W. L. Ball, August Hocksher and A. E. Stillwell, has been chosen by a majority of the holders of the stocks and bonds of the Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf Railroad company, Kansas City Suburban Belt Railroad company, Kansas City, Shreveport and Gulf Terminal company and Port Arthur Channel and Dock company, to devise and carry out a plan for the readjustment of the affairs of the companies by means of consolidation or otherwise, and the remaining holders of the securities involved are today required to communicate with the committee so that they may be fully advised of the progress made in the carrying out of a plan to reorganize.

Verdict in Eagan's Trial.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—A special to the Times Herald from Washington says: Dismissed from the military service of the United States without any recommendation for clemency is the verdict passed by the court-martial upon Commissary General Eagan for his recent virulent attack upon General Miles. The verdict within forty-five minutes after the trial ended today.

Notwithstanding the nature of the court's conclusions, the president can exercise clemency if he so desires, and General Eagan's friends will urge that his punishment be confined to relieving him from duty as commissary general of subsistence and to a detail to garrison duty.

A Criminal's Haven.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The expiration of the extradition treaty between the United States and Mexico at midnight Tuesday left few fugitives from justice to profit by it. So far as known at the state department Santiago Morphy is now the only Mexican fugitive at large in the United States. He made a sensational escape from the Mexican chief of police in New Orleans just one day before the treaty expired. In Mexico there is one American, James Temple, who is a fugitive from justice on the charge of murder. Extradition proceedings are now in progress against him, and there is reason to believe Mexico may grant extradition.

A new treaty is under way, Ambassador Clayton and the Mexican foreign minister, Senor Mariscal, conducting negotiations. The chief obstacle to the treaty is the difference of opinion between the Mexican government and the American in the definition of political or revolutionary crimes which may not be subject to extradition.

Was in Quantrell's Band.

Linn Creek, Mo., Jan. 27.—Twelve days have elapsed since G. W. Anderson and his companion, Lizzie Wiesbach, were found murdered in a lonely cabin among the hills two miles east of here and there is still no clue to the murderer. Little is known of Anderson's early life. He was born in north Missouri about fifty-five years ago. He joined the union forces at the beginning of the war, but deserted shortly after and operated with his uncle, the notorious Bill Anderson, and with Quantrell's band for a time; then re-enlisted under an assumed name and was wounded in the arm. At the time of his death he was the possessor of four and a half miles of Osage river valley land, the most fertile and productive in this section; besides a number of smaller farms in this and adjoining counties. For a number of years he loaned money on real estate and it is estimated that his estate is worth $50,000. Anderson had a great deal of trouble with his family and he had been accused of several peculiarly gross crimes. It is supposed that the murderer believed that he was avenging one of these.

Smallpox Not Serious.

Austin, Jan. 27.—Dr. Blunt has returned to the capital and says the reports of the smallpox throughout the state are greatly exaggerated. At Laredo there are about forty cases, wholly among the Mexican population. He says over sixteen hundred persons have been vaccinated and the county authorities have methodized the work of vaccination. Each ward is under the supervision of an authority and every person in such ward will be vaccinated. Dr. Blunt says that wherever smallpox exists in the state it's under control.
